GUIDELINES

All school personnel may exercise their right and duty to participate in the election process, especially for local elections and also for state and national elections. The following guidelines are given by the Board to ensure that all employees can exercise their right to the fullest measure and feel complete freedom to openly and actively support the candidate of their choice.

1. Administrators should use care so that nothing said or done could be construed as undue pressure on people under him or her to vote for or against a particular person or issue. This policy is not intended to restrict the free exchange of ideas of employees or otherwise affect their rights of discussion or to make inquiries of their supervisors or colleagues regarding public issues or political contests.
2. Employees are encouraged to refer political candidates, Board candidates, or any other citizen seeking information relating to school operations to the Superintendent in order to prevent any student, employee, or public confusion that might be created by misstatement of school policies, administrative actions, or Board decisions.
