

Mission Statement	The mission of Edcouch-Elsa ISD is to produce responsible graduates who can complete confidently in a dynamic global society by providing an individualized, nurturing educational foundation that draws strength from our community's spiritual roots and rich cultural heritage as we face the challenge of the new millennium.
Philosophy	The District views itself as the vehicle through which each student can embark to success. In this role, we, the Board and the professional and ancillary personnel, commit ourselves to providing an environment that promotes, fosters, and ensures the personal dignity of each student and encourages all students to develop physical, emotional, and mental abilities to their fullest potential. To fulfill this endeavor, we recognize the incompatibilities and inequities that exist in the District and consequently dedicate ourselves to the specific philosophies set out in this policy. In order to realize the desired outcome, we hereby make a commitment to fiscal and organizational efficiency and accountability.
Poverty	We recognize that extreme degrees of poverty exist within the District that must, by means of the educational program design, be considered in the implementation of a comprehensive student development program.
Culture	We recognize that culture is the totality of group learned behavior and we value diversity of human behavior. The schools will reflect the community's bilingual-bicultural society in the District's environment.
Language	We recognize the need for bilingual education in the schools to effectively increase each student's cognitive development, specifically the need to begin instruction in the language native to the student, and to help the student develop efficiently in the other dominant language of the bilingual community.
Mobility	We recognize that migrant patterns affect the learning process; consequently, the District must provide continuity through flexibility in programming.
Perceptions	We recognize that societal perceptions based on cultural and socio-economic differences affect a student's education and the probability of the student's success. The schools will make every effort to contribute to: <ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>1. The development of a positive self-concept in every student.</li><li>2. The development in all persons within the school community the ability to value diversity.</li></ol>

	<ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>3. The development of positive self-concepts of all individuals in the student's environment.</li></ol>
Scope and Sequence	We recognize that the scope and sequence of the prescribed curriculum must be so designed as to allow each student entry into and flexibility within the curriculum.
Policies and Governances	We recognize that policies and governances shall be established centrally and on individual campuses in such a manner that: <ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>1. They are reflective of the needs and desires of the majority of the community and respect the rights of all.</li><li>2. They will be conveyed to the community through effective bi-lingual dissemination channels.</li><li>3. They will establish clear channels of communication, and responsibility within the District's organization.</li><li>4. They will be minimal.</li></ol>
Curriculum	We recognize the responsibility of the District to: <ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>1. Provide for continuous local development of new educational programs and curriculum materials consistent with the goals of this statement of philosophy and the District and campus improvement plans.</li><li>2. Provide continuous coordinated staff training programs in methodologies essential to the implementation of these goals.</li></ol>
Student Appraisal	We recognize that a comprehensive student appraisal system, based on specific objectives, must measure: <ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>1. Instructional and noninstructional needs.</li><li>2. Success in meeting instructional needs consistent with the student's way of learning.</li><li>3. Success in meeting noninstructional needs.</li></ol>
Special Education	We recognize the need for a comprehensive and flexible education program designed to meet the needs of each exceptional student with safeguards to ensure the appropriate placement of students.
Cocurricular	We recognize that cocurricular activities are essential in the educational development of each student and that continuous review must be provided to ensure that each student has equal access to all activities.
Planning and Evaluation	We recognize that appropriate development and implementation of comprehensive programs for students require a central planning
