

A student who has failed to meet applicable state testing requirements shall not be allowed to participate in commencement activities unless:

1. The student satisfactorily completes all coursework requirements for graduation; and
2. The student successfully attends 90 percent of available District-sponsored tutorials, or courses for each of the state testing areas for which the student is qualified or is assigned to attend, during grade 12.

[See EI, EIF]