

In accordance with administrative procedures, the District shall provide at least annual training opportunities for teachers of students with dyslexia that include new research and practices for educating students with dyslexia.