

Social Security Number

The College District shall not use an employee's social security number as an employee identifier, except for tax purposes [see DC]. In accordance with law, the College District shall keep an employee's social security number confidential.