

Composition of the District-Level Committee

The District-level committee (DLC) will include the following:

1. Nineteen District- and campus-level professionals elected by the District Advisory Committee (DAC):
 - a. Five elementary classroom teachers;
 - b. Five middle school classroom teachers;
 - c. Five high school classroom teachers;
 - d. One elementary principal;
 - e. One middle school principal;
 - f. One high school principal; and
 - g. One District-level professional by vote of the DAC.
2. Two parent representatives with one selected by the PTA executive board and one selected by a process determined by the Superintendent.
3. Two business/community representatives elected by a process determined by the Superintendent.
4. One to three ex officio members selected by the Superintendent.

Terms

One-half of each of the first three groups will rotate each year. Terms will be for two years except for the first year when lots will be drawn at the first meeting to determine which half will rotate off at the end of the year and which half will serve two continuous years.

Vacancies

If a vacancy occurs among the representatives prior to the completion of the term, replacement for the current term will be made by the same process as originally used for that position.
