STUDENT ACTIVITIES SCHOOL-SPONSORED PUBLICATIONS

FMA (LEGAL)

The District's educators shall exercise editorial control over style and content of student speech in school-sponsored expressive activities so long as their actions are reasonably related to legitimate pedagogical concems.

The District may refuse to disseminate or sponsor student speech that:

- 1. Would substantially interfere with the work of the school.
- 2. Impinges on the rights of other students.
- 3. Is vulgar or profane.
- 4. Might reasonably be perceived to advocate drug or alcohol use, irresponsible sex, or conduct otherwise inconsistent with the shared values of a civilized social order.
- 5. Is inappropriate for the level of maturity of the readers.
- 6. Does not meet the standards of the educators who supervise the production of the publication.
- 7. Associates the school with any position other than neutrality on matters of political controversy.
