

Routine Responsibilities

The administration shall determine the distribution of work among members of the staff. The Superintendent and principals shall require each staff member to be on duty before and after regular school hours long enough to plan and carry out individual professional responsibilities. These responsibilities shall include planning, supervision, guidance, instruction, and other routine duties or assignments made by the Superintendent or the principal, such as work related to extracurricular activities, hall duty, and cafeteria duty.