

Process

In order to provide a challenging, relevant curriculum to support students' skills and learning, the District supports ongoing, continuous analysis and improvement of curriculum and student performance. To ensure quality and equity in curriculum, schools and staff members are expected to follow an established process for recommending or implementing curriculum updates or revisions.

Curriculum updates and revisions are scheduled through and supported by District staff and funds. Proposals describing a desired curriculum update or revision should be submitted in accordance with the administrative regulation.