

Mission

We at Bangs ISD Schools, insisting that all children have the ability to learn, have a mission of assisting our students in developing the ability to think logically, independently, and creatively. We are dedicated to developing effective communication skills, as well as an appreciation of other people and their rights, and to building a responsibility to local, state, national, and world communities.