

Employed students are advised to limit their academic loads in accordance with the following recommendation: If students carry a full college load (12 units or more), they should not work more than 20 hours per week. If they must work more hours, the unit load in college should be reduced proportionately. The recommended load limit for day or evening students who are employed full-time is 6 units of coursework. The recommended load limit in a six-week summer session is 6 units of credit.
