

Reporting

The chief legal counsel shall serve as the District's designee of the Secretary of the Board for required filing in compliance with election laws. Candidates shall file election applications, statements, and reports with the chief legal counsel, and said items shall be deemed as having been filed with the Secretary of the Board.