

Assignments

The Superintendent or designee shall assign transfer students to schools according to attendance areas and reassign students to conform with any changes in attendance areas or to meet the needs of the District or the students. When the Superintendent determines that reassignment is necessary for any reason, the District shall notify the parent(s) or guardian of each student to be re-assigned, in writing.

Procedures and Process for Transfers

The Superintendent shall develop specific guidelines and processes for student transfers.

Option to Transfer to a Higher Performing School

A student who attends a school identified for school improvement pursuant to Title I, Part A, of the Texas Education Code, may request a transfer to a higher performing school. [See FDB(LEGAL)]

Safe School Choice Option

A student who requests a transfer to a safe school pursuant to applicable federal or state law shall be assigned in accordance with FDE (LEGAL) and (LOCAL).
