

Continuing education programs of the following types shall be provided:

1. Literacy and adult basic education programs.
2. Preparation for high school equivalency tests.
3. A vocational, general adult course.
4. Programs and courses to upgrade vocations.
5. Community service programs.
6. Contract instruction with government, business, and education.
7. Public forums.
8. Special community projects.
9. Other courses as appropriate.

The coordinators of continuing education shall be accountable for planning, implementing, and evaluating all noncredit courses and programs.

The Board shall approve new noncredit courses and programs, tuition, and tuition changes.

Noncredit programs shall be evaluated every three years.