1. The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) Accommodation Request Review Committee was established to review and evaluate requests for accommodation under the ADA. The committee will determine if the employee is a qualified individual with a disability and if it is feasible to provide accommodation(s). The committee will recommend appropriate accommodation(s) if it determines that the request meets the criteria established by the ADA. In addition, the committee will conduct an oversight review of all worksite accommodations for sufficiency and trends.

MEMBERSHIP

2. The committee membership is appointed by the chief human resources officer, Human Resources, and is composed of a representative from each of the following areas of administration:

   • Construction and Facility Services;
   • Finance;
   • Human Resources;
   • Legal Services; and
   • Academic Services.

   The chief human resources officer, Human Resources, serves as chairperson of the committee, and the manager, Equal Employment Opportunity, serves as secretary. In addition to committee members, the immediate workplace supervisor and the direct report of the requesting workplace will be present when the request is reviewed by the committee. The chief academic officer will serve on the committee when appropriate.
