Direct Communication with Board Members	communication between an employee and a Board member would be inappropriate because of a pending hearing or appeal related to the employee.
Formal Process	An employee may initiate the formal process described below by timely filing a written complaint form. Even after initiating the formal complaint process, employees are encouraged to seek informal resolution of their concerns. An employee whose concerns are resolved may withdraw a formal complaint at any time. The process described in this policy shall not be construed to create new or additional rights beyond those granted by law or Board policy, nor to require a full evidentiary hearing or “mini-trial” at any level.
Freedom from Retaliation	Neither the Board nor any District employee shall unlawfully retaliate against an employee for bringing a concern or complaint.
Whistleblower Complaints	Whistleblower complaints shall be filed within the time specified by law and may be made to the Superintendent or designee beginning at Level Two, below. Time lines for the employee and the District set out in this policy may be shortened to allow the Board to make a final decision within 60 calendar days of the initiation of the complaint. [See DG]
Complaints Against Supervisors	Complaint forms alleging a violation of law by a supervisor may be submitted to the Superintendent or designee. Complaint forms alleging a violation of law by the Superintendent may be submitted directly to the Board or designee.
General Provisions Filing	Complaint forms and appeal notices may be filed by hand-delivery, fax, or U.S. Mail. Hand-delivered filings shall be timely filed if received by the appropriate administrator or designee by the close of business on the deadline. Fax filings shall be timely filed if they are received by the close of business on the deadline, as indicated by the date/time shown on the fax copy. Mail filings shall be timely filed if they are postmarked by U.S. Mail on or before the deadline and received by the appropriate administrator or designated representative no more than three days after the deadline.
Scheduling Conferences	The District shall make reasonable attempts to schedule conferences at a mutually agreeable time. If the employee fails to appear at a scheduled conference, the District may hold the conference and issue a decision in the employee’s absence. Reasonable attempts to schedule a conference are defined as at least three attempts to contact the grievant with no response. The first two contact attempts may be by telephone. If there is no answer, a voicemail or message, when available, must be left. The voicemail or message must identify the caller's name, position, purpose for the call, and callback number. The telephone call must be documented, including the date and time of the call, whether a voicemail or message was left or the reason that no voicemail or message was left, and, where applicable, the identity of the person taking the message. The third contact attempt must be made via letter that is hand-delivered or sent via certified mail, return receipt requested. The first two attempts may also be made in this manner.

Where the contact attempt was made by telephone, the administrator must allow at least three business days before making the next contact attempt. Where contact is made by letter, the administrator must allow at least three business days from the date of delivery before making the next contact attempt. These waiting periods apply for the purposes of counting the number of contact attempts and in no way limit an administrator's ability to make additional attempts to contact the grievant during the required waiting periods.

Response At Levels One and Two, "response" shall mean a written communication to the employee from the appropriate administrator. Responses may be hand-delivered or sent by U.S. Mail to the employee's mailing address of record. Mailed responses shall be timely if they are postmarked by U.S. Mail on or before the deadline. A response may be sent to the employee's e-mail address of record only if a copy is also hand-delivered or sent by U.S. Mail.

Days "Days" shall mean District business days, unless otherwise noted. In calculating time lines under this policy, the day a document is filed is "day zero." The following business day is "day one."

Representative "Representative" shall mean any person who or an organization that does not claim the right to strike and is designated by the employee to represent him or her in the complaint process.

The employee may designate a representative through written notice to the District at any level of this process. The representative may participate in person or by telephone conference call. If the employee designates a representative with fewer than three days' notice to the District before a scheduled conference or hearing, the District may reschedule the conference or hearing to a later date, if desired, in order to include the District's counsel. The District may be represented by counsel at any level of the process.

Consolidating Complaints When the Superintendent or designee determines that two or more complaints are sufficiently similar in nature and remedy sought to permit their resolution through one proceeding, he or she may consolidate the grievances.

Absent extenuating circumstances, the administrator shall provide the employee a written response within seven days following the conference. The written response shall set forth the basis of the decision. Recordings of the Level One and Level Two conferences, if any, shall be maintained with the Level One and Level Two records.

The District shall determine whether the complaint will be presented in open or closed meeting in accordance with the Texas Open Meetings Act and other applicable law. [See BE]

The presiding officer may set reasonable time limits and guidelines for the presentation, including an opportunity for the employee and administration to each make a presentation and provide rebuttal and an opportunity for questioning by the Board. No formal evidentiary rules shall apply, and neither the administration nor the staff member has the right to cross-examine or to compel testimony from witnesses. The information presented is left to the discretion of the parties, subject to exclusion of irrelevant, repetitive, or unnecessary information by the Board. The Board shall hear the complaint and may request that the administration provide an explanation for the decisions at the preceding levels.

In addition to any other record of the Board meeting required by law, the Board shall prepare a separate record of the Level Three presentation. The Level Three presentation, including the presentation by the employee or the employee's representative, any presentation from the administration, and questions from the Board with responses, shall be recorded by audio recording, video/audio recording, or court reporter.

The Board shall then consider the complaint. It may give notice of its decision orally or in writing at any time up to and including the next regularly scheduled Board meeting.
