

Staff Development
Equivalency

With the principal's prior approval, professional and paraprofessional personnel may attend conventions, conferences, workshops, and seminars on weekends, holidays, summer vacation, or other noninstructional time and be excused from designated staff development activities.