

Class rankings, the selection of honor students, the calculation of grade point average, and all related processes shall be determined by administrative regulations. These regulations and procedures shall be clearly outlined each year in the student handbook and annually reviewed by the Board. Administrators shall effectively communicate these procedures to students, parents, and staff, as appropriate.