All copyrights, trademarks, and other intellectual property rights shall remain with the College District at all times.

Students
A student shall retain all rights to work created as part of instruction or using College District technology resources.

Employees
As an agent of the College District, an employee, including a student employee, shall not have rights to work he or she creates on College District time or using College District technology resources. The College District shall own any work or work product created by a College District employee in the course and scope of his or her employment, including the right to obtain copyrights. If the employee obtains a patent for such work, the employee shall grant a non-exclusive, non-transferable, perpetual, royalty-free, College District-wide license to the College District for use of the patented work. A College District employee shall own any work or work product produced on his or her own time, away from his or her job and with personal equipment and materials, including the right to obtain patents or copyrights.

Permission
A College District employee may apply to the College President or designee to use College District materials and equipment in his or her creative projects, provided the employee agrees either to grant to the College District a non-exclusive, non-transferable, perpetual, royalty-free, College District-wide license to use the work, or permits the College District to be listed as co-author or co-inventor if the College District contribution to the work is substantial. College District materials do not include student work, all rights to which are retained by the student.

Works for Hire
The College District may hire an independent contractor for specially commissioned work(s) under a written works-made-for-hire agreement that provides that the College District shall own the work product created under the agreement, as permitted by copyright law. Independent contractors shall comply with copyright law in all works commissioned.

Return of Intellectual Property
Upon the termination of any person’s association with the College District, all permission to possess, receive, or modify the College District’s intellectual property shall also immediately terminate. All such persons shall return to the College District all intellectual property, including but not limited to any copies, no matter how kept or stored, and whether directly or indirectly possessed by such person.

Copyright
Unless the proposed use of a copyrighted work is an exception under the “fair use” guidelines maintained by the College President or designee, the College District shall require an employee or student... to obtain a license or permission from the copyright holder before copying, modifying, displaying, performing, distributing, or otherwise employing the copyright holder’s work for instructional, curricular, or extracurricular purposes. This policy does not apply to any work sufficiently documented to be in the public domain.

Technology Use

All persons are prohibited from using College District technology in violation of any law including copyright law. Only appropriately licensed programs or software may be used with College District technology resources. No person shall use the College District’s technology resources to post, publicize, or duplicate information in violation of copyright law. The Board shall direct the College President or designee to employ all reasonable measures to prevent the use of College District technology resources in violation of the law. All persons using College District technology resources in violation of law shall lose user privileges in addition to other sanctions. [See BBI and CR]

Electronic Media

Unless a license or permission is obtained, electronic media in the classroom, including motion pictures and other audiovisual works, must be used in the course of face-to-face teaching activities as defined by law.

Designated Agent

The College District shall designate an agent to receive notification of alleged online copyright infringement and shall notify the U.S. Copyright Office of the designated agent’s identity. The College District shall include on its Web site information on how to contact the College District’s designated agent and a copy of the College District’s copyright policy. Upon notification, the College District’s designated agent shall take all actions necessary to remedy any violation. The College District shall provide the designated agent appropriate training and resources necessary to protect the College District.

If a content owner reasonably believes that the College District’s technology resources have been used to infringe upon a copyright, the owner may notify the designated agent.

Trademark

The College District protects all College District and campus trademarks, including names, logos, mascots, and symbols, from unauthorized use.

College District-Related Use

The College District grants permission to students, student organizations, parent organizations, and other College District-affiliated college-support organizations to use, without charge, College District and campus trademarks to promote a group of students, an activity or event, a campus, or the College District, if the use is in furtherance of College District-related business or activity. The College President or designee shall determine what constitutes use in furtherance of College District-related business or activity and is authorized to revoke permission if the use is improper or does not conform to administrative regulations.

Public Use

Members of the general public, outside organizations, vendors, commercial manufacturers, wholesalers, and retailers shall not use College District trademarks without the written permission of the College President or designee. Any production of merchandise with College District trademarks for sale or distribution must be pursuant to a trademark licensing agreement and may be subject to the payment of royalties.

Any individual, organization, or business that uses College District trademarks without appropriate authorization shall be subject to legal action.
