

Confidentiality

All discussions, reports, and individual comments made by persons attending a closed meeting shall remain confidential and shall not be revealed to anyone, including the spouse or other family member of a person who attended such a meeting. Anyone violating this policy may be sanctioned by the Board.