

Curriculum Development and Revision

The College President shall establish procedures for curriculum development that provide for faculty involvement in decision making. All educational programs shall be continually reappraised to ensure that the offered courses meet the needs of the community and College District students.